Ha! Ha! Ha! "The Girl From Rector's"

OGDEN THEATER

Bold Sensational

WEEK COMMENCING SUNDAY, NOV. 16.

A BARREL OF FUN—A DARING, FRISKY, FROLICKING PLAY

"THE GIRL FROM RECTOR'S"

"Laugh and the world laughs with you," is a phrase known through the civilized world, and it is safe to say that all who attend "The Girl From Rector's" will be with the world in that respect. It is a play built for laughing purposes only and every line contains a scream. The trouble all starts when Professor Mahoon makes up his mind to marry Marcia Singleton. He is inclined to be very straight laced while the fair Marcia is just the opposite. Marcia, however, decides to throw over the professor and marry Richard, the nephew. Richard, in the meantime, has had an affair with Lontedadne, the girl from Rector's, who afterwards turns out to be a married woman celebrating her husband's absence with Dick as a plaything. Complications become numerous, and rivalry between Dick and his uncle, the professor, for the hand of Marcia becomes so intense that Richard finally has the old man sent to the lunatic asylum. The rest can not easily be imagined. The working out of the tangled threads of the plot is positively the last word in frisky, frivolous frothy entertainment. Miss Mayme Arington will have a wide chance to do her most clever work. Her gowns will form a special attraction by themselves, displaying the latest patterns worn by the boldest of the "400" class of Fifth avenue. Mr. Pawley will be at his best in a light comedy part well adapted for him, and as Dick Van Arsdale, will reveal a mine of rich comedy. Night prices, 20 and 30; matinee, 10 and 20.

DOPE ON "THE GIRL FROM RECTOR'S"

More sensational than the "Girl in the Taxi"—more daring than the "Blue Mouse."

The "New York American" says: "There's a laugh a minute by actual count during the playing time of 'The Girl From Rector's.' There is not an indecent line spoken. It brought to a representative audience of the best society in the city, a thousand laughs and not a single blush."

"The Girl From Rector's" played 300 nights at Weber's Music Hall, New York City.

The moralist may criticize, but you can bet he will not miss seeing the show.

"The Girl From Rector's" is positively the last word in dashing, frisky, rollicking entertainment.

"A lady ordered a sack of Minnesota hard wheat flour from me the other day; asked her if wouldn't do, as it is a fine hard wheat flour; she said she would try it.

She came in yesterday and told me that OPTIMO has the Minnesota flour beat a court try block and she wanted nothing else but OPTIMO in the future."
